

Rhythm and Art: Painting

Student Name: _____

Complete the following self-evaluation, which is based on the lesson objectives:

	Always	Sometimes	Rarely	Never
Did you achieve an understanding of non-verbal language (auditory and visual), and were you able to interpret it?
Did you work in different mediums, such as drawing, collage (manipulative), and painting?
Did you achieve an understanding of the relationships between elements and principles (specifically, line, shape, and color, and their maximum and minimum contrast)?
Did you observe and respond to the content in your work and in others' work?
Did you apply critical thinking skills (comparing, contrasting, and analyzing) while exploring Internet resources?				