

landscape/treescape: a picture filled with mostly tree or tree-like objects space (closed): an area filled with objects foreground: the section of a painting containing details, brighter colors, and larger objects middle ground: the center of interest in a painting, usually at eye level and distinctive in color, size, shape