

chant (verb)

1. To say or sing a phrase over and over again

chant (noun)

A phrase that is said or sung over and over again

hopscotch (noun)

A game in which players throw a stone or other object into a pattern of numbered shapes drawn on the ground, and the players hop into the shapes in a certain order and try to pick up a stone.

jump rope (noun)

1. A rope used for exercise and in children's games where the jump rope is swung over the head and under the feet as the player jumps up to let it pass. 2. A game in which this rope is used

Rhyme (verb)

1. Words that rhyme often end with the same sounds; for example, the word seat rhymes with the words beet and feet (noun) 2. A short poem with words that rhyme, such as "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star":

*Twinkle, twinkle, little star,
How I wonder where you are.
Up above the world so high,
Like a diamond in the sky.*

rhythm (noun)

A regular beat in music, poetry, or dance

stickball (noun)

A game played with a rubber ball and a stick (or broom handle) for a bat

teamwork (noun)

A way of working together by the members of a group or a team to reach a common goal

urban (adjective)

Having to do with a city; Example: urban problems or urban population

These definitions have been adapted from the Scholastic Children's Dictionary and the Merriam-Webster Online Dictionary.