

geometric: characterized by straight lines, triangles, circles, or similar regular forms pattern: an arrangement of form; something that is repeated in the same order self space: the space occupied by a single child shape: the form characteristic of a particular thing or person transition: a passing from one condition, form, stage, activity, place, etc. to another formation: the way in which something is formed or arranged