

What is a Surrey?

Student Name: _____

	Discussion Participation	Group Participation	Vocal Participation	Creative Writing, Step 1	Creative Writing, Step 2
4	Demonstrated high level of participation in classroom discussions.	Highly effective: Student demonstrated a high level of participation in the group, sharing ideas and listening to others.	Completely accurate: There were no errors in intonation, rhythm, pronunciation, and diction.	The lyrics were rewritten in grammatically correct terms with no errors in capitalization, usage, punctuation, or spelling.	The lyrics were rewritten in a highly creative manner, using numerous examples of today's slang terms.
3	Demonstrated moderately high level of participation in classroom discussions.	Effective: Student demonstrated a moderately high level of participation in the group, sharing some ideas and listening to others.	Generally accurate: Few inaccuracies in intonation, rhythm, pronunciation, and diction.	The lyrics were rewritten with a high understanding of grammatical correctness with few inaccuracies in capitalization, usage, punctuation, or spelling.	The lyrics were rewritten in a moderately high creative manner. Many examples of today's slang terms were used.
2	Demonstrated moderate level of participation in classroom discussions.	Moderately effective: Student demonstrated a moderate level of participation in the group by sharing once in a while and listening to others.	Many inaccuracies: Numerous errors in intonation, rhythm, pronunciation, and diction.	Some of the lyrics were rewritten with an attempt to obtain grammatical correctness. There were numerous errors in capitalization, usage, punctuation, or spelling.	The lyrics were rewritten in a somewhat creative manner. A few examples of today's slang terms were used.
1	Demonstrated very little participation in classroom discussions.	Ineffective: Student demonstrated very little participation in the group discussions.	Major inaccuracies: Significant errors in intonation, rhythm, pronunciation, and diction.	Very little changes were made in the lyrics and significant errors were evident throughout the writing assignment.	The lyrics were rewritten in a manner that was unclear and impossible to follow.
0	Did not participate in classroom discussions.	Did not participate in the small group activities.	Did not participate in vocal music activity.	Did not participate in the first creative writing activity.	Did not participate in the second creative writing activity.