

Lewis and Clark: Prized Possession

Student Name: _____

	4	3	2	1	0
described their prized possession and it's importance.	Used great detail to vividly and accurately describe prized possession and its importance to its owner.	Used details to accurately describe prized possession and informs of its importance to its owner.	Used some details to describe prized possession its importance to its owner.	Used few details to describe prized possession or informs of its importance to its owner, but not both.	Used few or no details to describe prized possession or did not complete the writing prompt.
used the appropriate grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation for writing.	All grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation rules for paragraph writing followed.	Most grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation rules for paragraph writing followed.	Some grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation rules for paragraph writing followed.	Many errors in grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation rules for paragraph writing.	No attempt made or too many errors to write a paragraph properly.
demonstrated understanding of patterns and their use.	Accurately recreated practice pattern, independent pattern, and group pattern.	Accurately recreated 2 out of 3 patterns on the page.	Accurately recreated 1 out of 3 patterns on the page.	Attempted to recreate some patterns on the page.	No attempt made to recreate the patterns.
completed the pattern exercise	Accurately repeated the group's pattern three times.	Almost always accurately repeated the group's pattern three times.	Some accuracy in the group's pattern that is repeated three times.	Made an attempt at accuracy in the group's pattern or many errors in the repeated pattern.	No work or created a totally new pattern or little attempt made at accuracy to repeat the group's pattern.
successfully create a belt on a loom	Pattern is accurately recreated on the loom with a smooth and snug final product.	Pattern is accurately recreated on the loom but final product has some bumps (waves) in it.	Pattern is recreated on the loom, final product has bumps, or parts coming off because needle wasn't passed through correctly	Attempted to recreate pattern on the loom, but failed to complete due to many mistakes.	Little or no attempt made to recreate the pattern.