

Civil War Music

Student Name: _____

	Consistently	Usually	Sometimes	Seldom	Rarely	Comments
The student performs a piece of Civil War music, either as a soloist or in a group. The performance may use voice or instruments.
The student identifies the song title and lyricist.
The student identifies who sang the song—the North, the South, or both sides. The student can identify if any changes in lyrics were made.
The student classifies the song correctly (rallying song, recruiting song, popular entertainment song, campfire song, or patriotic song) and is able to explain the choice with two supporting points.
The student has four songs, each different (one Union, one Confederate, one changed song, and a song enjoyed by both sides). The students can check for song titles on the true or false quiz.
The student performs a piece of Civil War music, either as a soloist or in a group. The performance may use voice or instruments.
The student identifies the song title and lyricist.
The student identifies who sang the song—the North, the South, or both sides. The student can identify if any changes in lyrics were made.
The student classifies the song correctly (rallying song, recruiting song, popular entertainment song, campfire song, or patriotic song) and is able to explain the choice with two supporting points.
The student has four songs, each different (one Union, one Confederate, one changed song, and a song enjoyed by both sides). The students can check for song titles on the true or false quiz.						