

Explorers' Experience

accuracy: correctness or precision explore: to search or travel for the purpose of discovering something or somewhere explorer: an individual who explores navigate: to voyage over water in a boat or a ship. To follow a planned course or route research: to look up or to carefully study resource: something that can be used for support or help vessel: a craft, designed to navigate on water or air