

Analyzing Photographs

Student Name: _____

The student is able to:	Always	Frequently	Sometimes	Rarely	Comments carefully compose their photograph reflecting thought about the elements of formal analysis.
classify their photo as “active image making,” rather than passive or neutral.
write an artist’s statement that has a well-developed paragraph that effectively describes the image.
write an artist’s statement that has a well-developed paragraph, that effectively uses formal analysis.
write an artist’s statement that has a well-developed paragraph that discusses the reflective aspects of the image.
write an artist’s statement that followed the conventions of spelling, grammar, and punctuation.					