

Hula Story Map Rubric

Student Name: _____

Task	Excellent	Good	Needs Improvement
Incorporated Hula Gestures in Story	The group used more than nine hula gestures in its story.	The group used more than seven hula gestures in its story.	The group used seven or fewer hula gestures in its story
Story Development	The group story was very creative and interesting. It included six or more facts about Hawaii.	The group story was creative and interesting. It included four or more facts about Hawaii.	The group story was not creative. It included fewer than four facts about Hawaii.
Dance Performance	The performance was very well executed and told a story. The students were able to improvise, create, and perform this dance based on their own ideas and concepts from the resources provided.	The performance was well executed and told a story. The students were able to improvise, create, and perform this dance based on their own ideas and concepts from the resources provided.	The performance was not well executed and did not tell a clear story. The students were unable to create and perform a dance based on their own ideas and concepts from the resources provided.
Collaborative Skills	The group collaborated in a highly effective manner.	The group collaborated in an effective manner.	The group did not collaborate in an effective manner.