

Guidelines for a Successful Dramatic Presentation

Guidelines:

- Use vocal projection. Speak loudly enough so that everyone in the audience can hear you.
- Make your voice expressive. Try to make your voice sound the way that the character would sound.
- Use facial expressions. Show your audience whether you are happy, sad, scared, etc.
- Stay focused and concentrate. Do not come out of character.
- Memorize the sequence of your story.
- Be as creative as possible with your costume.
- Use body movements to help tell the story.
