

Ordinary to Extraordinary

Directions: You will now reflect in writing on how you changed an ordinary object into art by writing your own artist's statement below. Be sure to write about how your ideas of art have or have not changed and what you think changed an ordinary object into a piece of art.