

Silk Road Timeline

Directions: You will be creating a timeline comparing important historical events that happened around the world while you study events in China. This timeline will provide a broader historical context as you study the Silk Road, and will serve as a journal on which you can jot down notes as you learn about significant events in this lesson.

| DATE   | WORLD EVENTS | EVENTS IN CHINA |
|---------------|---------------------|------------------------|
| 200 BC |                     |                        |
| 100 BC |                     |                        |
| "0"    |                     |                        |
| 100    |                     |                        |
| 200    |                     |                        |
| 300    |                     |                        |
| 400    |                     |                        |
| 500    |                     |                        |
| 600    |                     |                        |
| 700    |                     |                        |
| 800    |                     |                        |
| 900    |                     |                        |

|             |  |  |
|-------------|--|--|
| 1000 |  |  |
| 1100 |  |  |
| 1200 |  |  |
| 1300 |  |  |