

Guantanamo: A Poem and a Song sedition: the stirring up of discontent, resistance, or rebellion against the government in power revolutionary: bringing about or constituting a great or radical change. A person who favors or takes part in a revolution.

liberate: to release from slavery, enemy occupation, etc.; to free liberator: a person who liberates, especially one who frees a country from an enemy or oppressor exile: living away from one's country, community, etc., for a prolonged period of time, usually enforced; banishment polemic: of or involving dispute; controversial